

CULTURE MENU Issue 2

Performing Arts

Watch Shakespeare's Coriolanus at the Donmar Theatre 4-10 June. Tom Hiddleston stars in this searing tragedy of political manipulation and revenge.

You may also like these bite-sized YouTube pieces that bring Shakespeare into 21st Century settings: Star Cross'd: Romeo and Juliet retold and Miranda's Letter. The latter, inspired by The Tempest, is a tender tale about mother-daughter relationships.

For some dance, why not try Sampad South Asian Arts - About the Elephant?

Broadcast from Dance City in Newcastle, it examines our sense of place and purpose in the world. With Kathak dancer Vidya Patel and Contemporary dancer Connor Scott.

Witness Bristol Old Vic's dramatic performance of Handel's Messiah

Museums and Galleries

For some Renaissance magic, visit the current Compton Verney Gallery exhibition Cranach: Artist and Innovator, with links for further in-depth information.

The Vatican offers virtual tours of its churches and chapels. Take your time admiring the Sistine Chapel without the crowds

Other

Watch an interview with Kate Mosse, founder of the Women's Prize for Fiction and author of the Languedoc Trilogy.

Tune in every day during the week for Puffin Story Time offering 20 minutes of Story Magic for kids. Mondays and Fridays for under 5s with picturebook read-alongs followed by draw-alongs. Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays for stories to suit those aged 6 upwards.

