

While our Wellington Orbit is temporarily closed, you may want to look at arts events available online. Our menu gives you weekly listings of offers to satisfy your cultural appetite. Make sure you check us out on Wednesdays!

CULTURE MENU

Performing Arts

This week we have a few dance offerings of varying lengths.

Produced by one of the Orbit's directors to mark World Environment Day watch modern dance in Hong-Kong's spectacular landscape (5 min)

The Royal Ballet shows a new work by Cathy Marston inspired by Jaqueline du Pre The Cellist (1 hour). She gave a performance during his art class that our Orbit volunteer Geoff still remembers fondly.

For a classic Pas de deux with Nureyev and Fonteyn watch Swan Lake (4.30min)

This ballet is ideal to introduce children to classical dance La Fille Mal Gardee (2 h) or just its comical highlight The Clog Dance (3 min)

Museums and Galleries

Just one link, but it takes you around the world! The Guardian compiled a list of 10 world famous museums. Museum and Art Gallery Tours

Other

Amnesty UK lets you choose between Edinburgh, Manchester or the Hackney Empire for podcasts of The Secret Policeman's Tour .

The Lockdown Theatre Festival reimagines four cancelled works from different theatres as radio plays. Shoe Lady, The Mikvah Project, Love, Love, Love and Rockets and Blue Lights. You can find them on BBC Sounds on Radio 3 and 4 on 13th and 14th June.

Shrewsbury Folk Festival is of course cancelled for this year, but there will be a virtual festival on 29th and 30th August. SFF Save the date!

