

While our Wellington Orbit is temporarily closed, you may want to look at arts events available online. Our weekly menu gives you listings of offers to satisfy your cultural appetite. Check us out on Wednesdays!

CULTURE MENU

Performing Arts

This week we look north of the border for entertainment:

BBC Scotland has a collection of film clips produced during lockdown.

Scenes of Survival are monologues between 5 and 47 minutes long.

Christopher Eccleston in the title role promises a splendid Macbeth

The Scottish Symphony Orchestra offers a selection of recordings made in lockdown, from folk songs to Spem in Alium by Thomas Tallis, where one musician recorded all parts of 40 violinists. lockdown-performances-to-calm-the-mind

Museums and Galleries

The museum in Bangor is out of bounds at present, but you can visit the collection of 10000 objects and admire a model of Thomas Telford's suspension bridge over the Menai Straits. Storie!

Did you miss the spectacular Viking exhibition in 2014? Here is your chance to see it now! The Vikings

Art from Civil Rights Movement of the 1950s and 60s is a new exhibition at Turner Contemporary Art and Resistance in the American South

And Some More...

The original chamber music idea demonstrated by the family of Isata Kanneh-Mason. Just amazing. Beethoven Piano Concerto No 3

The Found Season shows works filmed on stage in Surrey courtesy of Grange Park Opera

The Shelf Service helps families with reading choices, featuring a new book introduced by a librarian every day . Take a look here.

Most of the links from previous weeks still work, so there is plenty to keep you entertained!